

2011 GJCL Mottoes, Abbreviations, and Famous Quotations Exam

Fill in the first four blocks on the answer sheet with your own four digit code, then the next four blocks with the code for this exam (1007). Fill in the space on the answer sheet corresponding to the correct answer for each question. DO NOT WRITE ON THE EXAM ITSELF.

I. Mottoes of States, Institutions, Organizations, etc.

1. E Pluribus Unum
a) Greece                      b) China                      c) United States                      d) European Union
2. Ad Astra Per Aspera
a) Alaska                      b) Nevada                      c) Utah                      d) Kansas
3. Alis Volat Propiis
a) Oregon                      b) Montana                      c) North Dakota                      d) South Dakota 4. Si Quaeris Peninsulam Amoenam Circumspice
a) Florida                      b) California                      c) Maine                      d) Michigan 5. Animis Opibusque Parati
a) Virginia                      b) South Carolina                      c) North Carolina                      d) Alabama 6. Audemus Jura Nostra Defendere
a) Tennessee                      b) Kentucky                      c) Maryland                      d) Alabama 7. Justitia Omnibus
a) Monaco                      b) Virgin Islands                      c) Vatican City                      d) District of Columbia
8. Excelsior a) New York                      b) Alaska                      c) Maine                      d) Minnesota
9. Dum Spiro, Spero
a) Washington                      b) Vermont                      c) South Carolina                      d) Florida
10. Ad Maiorem Dei Gloriam
a) the Order of Friars Minor                      b) the Cappadocians
c) the Benedictines                      d) the Jesuits 11. Aut Liber Aut Nullus
a) Puerto Rico                      b) Virgin Islands                      c) Guam                      d) Washington, DC 12. Cervus Alces
a) Associated Woodmen of America                      b) Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks
c) U.S. Field Service                      d) National Rifle Association 13. Deo Vindice
a) Confederate States of America                      b) Screen Actors Guild
c) Holy Roman Empire                      d) The Episcopal Church of America
14. Nil Sine Numine                      a) Florida                      b) Colorado                      c) Connecticut                      d) Maine
15. Qui Transtulit Sustinet                      a) Kansas                      b) Connecticut                      c) Tennessee                      d) Maryland
16. Regnat Populus                      a) South Dakota                      b) Massachusetts                      c) Arkansas                      d) Ohio
17. Sic Semper Tyrannis                      a) Idaho                      b) Maine                      c) Virginia                      d) Iowa

II. Abbreviations and Phrases

18. ad litteram
a) the alphabet                      b) to school                      c) exactly                      d) a written letter 19. sine die
a) without food                      b) without which                      c) without a name                      d) without a day 20. q.d.
a) every hour                      b) continually                      c) four times a day                      d) every day 21. ung.
a) ointment                      b) drops                      c) capsule                      d) liquid 22. a.m.
a) before noon                      b) noon                      c) after noon                      d) after death

23. ca.
a) hundred                      b) gallon                      c) approximately              d) wife 24. de novo
a) from the ninth justice                      b) a retrial
c) concerning new evidence                      d) at the end 25. cf.
a) look at                      b) compare                      c) in the same place              d) gather 26. p.m.a.
a) at exactly midnight                      b) more recently
c) month-end analysis                      d) after the author's death
27. nunc pro tunc
a) indefinitely                      b) a busybody                      c) a retroactive order              d) double jeopardy 28. gtt.
a) from the throat                      b) drops                      c) preventative                      d) cough three times 29. Sn
a) selenium                      b) titanium                      c) tin                      d) silicon 30. ex imo corde
a) longingly                      b) insincere                      c) from the heart                      d) hardened heart
31. in nuce                      a) never                      b) in the night                      c) in a nutshell                      d) neutral
32. non decet                      a) appropriate                      b) deceitful                      c) not proper                      d) immoral
33. emunctae naris                      a) qualified judgment                      b) broken nose                      c) good opinion                      d) nose

III. Quotations. Identify the author or interpretation of the given quote.

34. vae victis                      a) Livy                      b) Caesar                      c) Horace                      d) Juvenal
35. vires acquirit eundo                      a) Plautus                      b) Vegetius                      c) Vergil                      d) Publilius Syrus
36. o tempora, o mores!                      a) Cicero                      b) Lucretius                      c) Arrian                      d) Vitruvius
37. deus est mortali iuvare mortalem a) Horace                      b) Catullus                      c) Lucretius                      d) Pliny the elder
38. numquam autem recte faciet, qui cito credit, utique homo negotians
a) Varro                      b) Petronius                      c) Ennius                      d) Phaedrus 39. alea iacta est                      a) Vergil                      b) Cicero                      c) Caesar                      d) Terence
40. mens sana in corpore sano a) Juvenal                      b) Caesar                      c) Vergil                      d) Plautus
41. rara avis in terris nigroque simillima cycno a) Vergil                      b) Caesar                      c) Juvenal                      d) Cicero
42. carpe diem                      a) Sallust                      b) Plautus                      c) Martial                      d) Horace 43. I'll help myself first for my name is lion
a) Terence                      b) Phaedrus                      c) Livy                      d) Accius 44. Rome has grown so since its humble beginnings that it is now overwhelmed by its own greatness.
a) Varro                      b) Cato                      c) Livy                      d) Phaedrus 45. When talent fails, indignation writes the verse. a) Lucretius                      b) Tibullus                      c) Cato                      d) Juvenal 46. Worse than war is the very fear of war.                      a) Accius                      b) Cinna                      c) Lucretius                      d) Seneca
47. de mortuis nil nisi bonum
a) everyone dies sometime                      b) don't speak ill of the dead
c) do good without delay                      d) nothing good can come of it 48. dum Roma deliberat Saguntum perit
a) do as the Romans do                      b) exercise careful consideration
c) we need less talk, more action                      d) when things go badly, move on 49. audaces fortuna iuvat
a) nothing ventured, nothing gained                      b) a stitch in time saves nine
c) birds of a feather flock together                      d) there is nothing new under the sun
50. ex pede Herculem
a) by the skin of his teeth                      b) from head to toe, through and through
c) we can extrapolate much from a small amount of information                      d) there is power in brute force